

WATCH | Industrial Design student, Tshepiso Motau wins National Design Competition

STUDENT SUPPORT

2024 Applications are officially open

Download Namola now for quick emergency assistance

CELEBRATING SUCCESS

2023 SAICA ITC results affirm UJ as a leader in Accounting Education in South Africa

Ryan Mphahlele smashes his personal best in 2nd Grand Prix Continental Tour

UJ ranks among best universities globally for 13 subjects

WATCH | UJ's Makerspace Studio sparks creativity and critical thinking in young learners

Former UJ footballer Gerald Ndlovu to play for Polish side Halinow KS

MORE NEWS

UJ and TUT collaborate to launch TUT Hub of the AI Institute of South Africa

UJ-AU Model Summit advances Agenda 2063 and fosters leadership skills in students

Namibia's First Lady H.E. Monica Geingos joins UJ in call for collective action to dismantle GBV

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

As technology advances at breakneck speed, human cloning may be close behind

There are not many convincing arguments for human cloning. From an ethical standpoint, the arguments against it are overwhelming. But we can't dismiss the possibility out of hand.....Read more

Do you wish to contribute student content to this newsletter?
Please send your draft articles and pictures to news@uj.ac.za to get published.

